TERMS AND CONDITIONS

This is a public and mail bid auction conducted by Classical Numismatic Auctions, a division of Classical Numismatic Group, Inc. Bidding in the auction constitutes acceptance of the following terms and conditions.

1. The property listed in this catalogue is offered for sale by CNA (the auctioneers) as agents for various owners and other consignors. We reserve the right to withdraw any lot before the close of the sale.
2. All lots are subject to a 10 % Buyer's fee on the hammer price.
3. All coins are guaranteed genuine and as described based on the most current information available to the cataloguer. Grading is a subjective art. Every effort has been made to be conservative in our grading. Please note that an auction sale is not an approval sale. Lots examined prior to the sale may not be returned for any reason except authenticity. Estimates given by the auctioneers are intended as a guide only and not as a statement of opinion of value.
4. Terms are for cash, with invoices being due and payable immediately upon receipt and the auctioneers reserve the right to charge interest on any overdue payment on invoices not settled within 30 days of the sale date. Payment by check must be made in either US ($) or British (£) funds and drawn on an United States or British bank (Cheques in sterling but not drawn on a British bank must include £10 extra for bank charges). Visa and Mastercard (Access) may be used to pay your bill, however, a 3.5% surcharge is made for the use of your credit card, our cost from the bank.
5. Bidders not known to us must provide us with satisfactory credit references and/or pay the full purchase price or a deposit as determined at the auctioneer's discretion before delivery of lots. Minors are forbidden from bidding without a parent's signature on the bid sheet.
6. Bid in even dollar ($) amounts. Mail Bidder Protection. You may submit bids with confidence. Where competition permits, your bids will be executed at 10% over the next highest bid. Please note, that most bids below estimate are rarely reduced, due to heavy competition. If you bid over estimate, chances are that your bids will be reduced. In the case of tie bids - the bid received earliest wins. Bid by lot number. No lots will be broken.
7. A word on Reserves. If a lot is reserved, it will not be in excess of the estimate. Check your bid sheets carefully. The seller cannot assume responsibility for errors made by bidders.
8. Buyers accepting commission bids from other parties do so at their own risk and will remain responsible to the auctioneers for full settlement per the terms of sale for this auction. Buyers shall not be entitled to remove lots from the auction room during the course of the auction without the prior permission of the auctioneer.
9. Sales Tax and postage are added to all invoices where appropriate. Postage for any book lots will be invoiced separately at the auctioneer's cost.
10. Prices Realised are published shortly after the sale and mailed to all bidders who have participated in the sale.
11. If you bid in this sale, you accept the terms as outlined above. Any legal disputes that might arise will be handled in the courts of Lancaster County, Pennsylvania.

GOOD LUCK and remember to mail your bid sheets early.
Bid sheets must be received by March 25, 1992.

It was customary to place a coin in the mouth of the dead in ancient Greece to pay for the deceased trip to the underworld. At other times a small token was used instead. It is not certain that these thin gold coin-like objects were used for that purpose, but they do not seem to have a use as jewellery.

CYPRIOT COINAGE

The following represents a collection of Cypriot coinage and related material that circulated there from Greek to Byzantine times. This collection was assembled over a long period of time, and then until its present consignment to this sale, it has been sitting in a vault in London. Many rare and unpublished types are represented and this offering is the first time some of them have ever been offered for sale. An excellent opportunity for the specialist!

653. Lead Tessera. Circa 1st Century BC-AD. 24mm (12.11 gm). Elephant standing right / TORQ in two lines. VF, gray patina. Rare. (500)

This token and the following were found in the Tiber river near Rome. In the time of the late Republic and early Empire tokens of this type were used as advertisements and admission tickets for the public games (venatio). They would depict exotic beasts featured in the arena, such as elephant, rhinoceros and lion, and scenes of gladiatorial combat. Some pieces may indicate the sponsor of the games, in this case an official named Torquatus, possibly the L. Torquatus, moneyer in 62 BC. Later pieces bear the name of the Emperor.

Some 5-10 examples of this type are thought to have survived. This piece was directly in imitation of the contemporary Venetian ducats. Fluviane went so far as to make himself appear as a Venetian Doge to further the acceptance of this ducat. See information following the next lot for the significance of Fluviane's coins.

1135. RHODES, Grandmasters of. Antoine Fluviane. 1421-1437. AV Ducat (3.52 gm). SIT T XRE DAT QTV REGIS ISTE DVCA, Christ / F ANT FLVIAN SI BATIS MRO, Grandmaster kneeling left, cross on shoulder before St. John the Baptist. Grierson -, Schlumberger -. EF. Extremely Rare and possibly unique. (11,000)

After a strong protest from Venice, Fluviane introduced a new ducat to replace his previous "doge" type. He maintained the look of the Venetian ducat as closely as he could. This extremely rare issue is known from few surviving examples, and this is the only type with this legend that we could locate. All of the issues of the Grandmasters of Rhodes are rare and some such as this extremely rare. The Order at Rhodes was at a critical point in its history. The Ottomans, under Mahomet, son of Bajazet were threatening the Christian West, as was Seif ed-dyn, Sultan of Egypt. The defense of the Island in 1426 cost the Order 1,000,000 sequins of gold from the treasury. This was paid to Avignon. This totally depleted the reserves (thus the lack of surviving coins). Auster measures were taken to replenish the treasury. Fluviane donated some 12,000 florins and on his death in 1437 had all his possessions sold to help replenish the coffers. Consequently, few coins of Fluviane survive to this day.

After the battle of the Boyne, in 1690, William III seized the mint at Dublin. Limerick continued to hold out for James well into 1691. Limerick recoined large gunmoney shillings into halfpennies and smaller shilling into farthings. This recoinage accounts for the very crude nature of the coins.

2069. [Demanhur Hoard]. Remarkable Collection of Greek Tetradrachms. Three hundred Silver Coins of Alexander the Great, In the Collection of Thomas Elder, F.R.N.S., 32 East Twenty-third St, New York City. Six (6) folio size plates (actual size of plate is 30 x 30 cm.) illustrating 300 Alexander III tetradrachms from the Demanhur hoard. Bound in recent custom binding with a plastic sleeve for each plate. The exact date and place of publication for these plates is not given but in Edward T. Newell's monograph, Alexander Hoard: Demanhur, 1905 (ANS NNM #19, 1923), he makes reference to these plates as follows (pp. 5-6): "Lot IV also no longer exists as an entity. Those pieces which had been secured from it by Mrs. Draper, Mr. Thomas B.F. Curtis, as well as many purchased by Mr. T.L. Elder of this city, have since passed into the possession of the author.....Mr. Elder published a series of six plates in half tone showing the obverses and reverses of about 300 tetradrachms. It should be noted, however, that no. 98 on Plates I and II was not from the find at Demanhur." Newell goes on to describe the circumstances of the hoard's discovery. Plates are fine or better. (50)
